James Sheahan, Police Corrigan and John Hurley, of the stable "gang" broke into Henry Harpell's liquor store at No. 234 East Forty-fifth-st. Saturday night and stole thirty-five bottles of wine. HAPPY ON HIS ANNUAL SUMMER VACATION.
The Rev. Dr. Kramer, of All Souls' Church, The fact that the Rev. Dr. Kramer, of St. Mark's Parish, was advertised to preach at All Souls' Church, Forty-eighth-st., yesterday, led many people to think that the Rev. Heber Newton was seriously ill. It was learned, however, that Dr. Kramer is happy on his annual summer vacation. He is expected to preach next Sunday. Yesterday Dr. Kramer, in his sermon, paid tribute to "Jerry" McAuley.

A WOMAN FIGHTING SIX POLICEMEN.
Lizzie Forrest, age twenty-four years, assaulted Officer Neil Connor, of the Fourth Precinct, in the Bowery, Saturday night. Six officers were needed to take her to the station house. Lord save us, Tom Bunker captain." The message was written on a torn envelope on the back of which was the address: British St. Catharine's Ontario, America." As there is but one bark Quebec, and she is now lying at the foot of Court-st., Brooklyn, the whole thing is probably an attempt at a cruel joke.

ANOTHER "SICK" POLICE OFFICER.
When William Wagner, a one-armed man, was rearranged yesterday before Justice Smith at the Tombs Police Court, he fainted, and Captain Daniel Sullivan, a cleric, in a lodging-house at No. 2 Peltz, on Friday night, Justice Smith appeared to be of the opinion that Officer Archibald of the Sixth Precinct, who had the person in charge, was under the influence of drink, and demanded that he be sent to the office. Sergeant Young, of the Sixth Precinct, was sent for and he explained that the officer was sick.

SLAVONIANS WITHOUT MONEY.
The North German Lloyd Steamship Company informed Commissioner Stevenson yesterday that several hundred Slavonians wanted a passage to the United States and offered to pay their passage if no more. Commissioner Stevenson said that if the people were able-bodied there would be no objection to them, but he advised the company to use discretion, as the passengers would be brought over at the company's risk, and the company would be obliged to carry back all emigrants whom the Commissioners refused to pass.

ENLISTMENTS ON THE MINNESOTA.
Captain J. H. Gillis, U. S. Navy, commanding the training ship Minnesota, has compiled a report of the applications for enlistments on board of the Minnesota, at this port, for the year ending April 1st, 1884, showing that 1,699 enlisted, of whom 2,753 of which 1,699 were physically qualified while 660 enlisted and 1,774 were rejected. Of the 439 who were physically qualified and did not enlist, most of them failed to secure the consent of their parents or guardians. Of the 660 enlisted 475 were American born. As the law provides for the minimum of five days, an option was still offered to the desirous of becoming first-class American sailors to gratify their wishes.

Murphy, of 595 East One-hundred-and-forty-third-st., was taken by Coroner Martin yesterday, and states that on September 11, he entered car No. 52 of the Morrison & Fife Line, just below John Eichler's brewery. A friend who was with him paid his fare. An additional fare was demanded of him and on his refusal to pay it he was ejected from the car, assaulted by Thomas Parker, the conductor, and Thomas Deacon, the driver, to such an extent that he was left unconscious on the street. He was taken to the Ninety-ninth Street Hospital, where he lies in a dangerous condition.

BREAKING LAMP-POST GLASSES IN HIS SHIRT.

Wild cries and the sound of glass breaking attracted the attention of Policeman Finnegan, who was controlling Manhattanville road, in Manhattan, to an Englishman, who was then forty-seven years old. The man was dashing through the streets, clad only in a shirt, and hurling stones at the gaslights as he passed. Officer Finnegan took the stranger to the West One-hundred-and-twenty-sixth Street Station. His name was found to be John Booth. He had been brought to New York by a family in England, but was unable to find a home there, and was sent to America by his brother four years ago. He worked in a pottery in Trenton, N. J., for some time, but his malady returned and he was sent to an asylum there. He left Trenton four days ago.
